At the church, take the «Mas de Lucet» road and get on to the GR 46 (red and white waymarking) At the next crossing, take the road left which starts off on the flat and then descends into the Vers Valley semi-troglodytic barn in ruins). Go past the Raffy mill then cross the hamlet of «Benedicty». Further on, on a bend, leave the path which goes up into a coomb and turn left.

1 At the crossroads, at the hamlet of «Marty», leave the GR, fork right and follow the bridle path (orange way-marking) which goes up a coomb. Come to a clearing and take the path going straight up (views over the village of Cours). Further on, by a meadow, go straight on over the crossing towards «Merlan». Rejoin the road, turn right then left and cross the hamlet (remarkable buildings and ox-shoeing stall). Go down the grassy track opposite and come to a crossing on a bend.

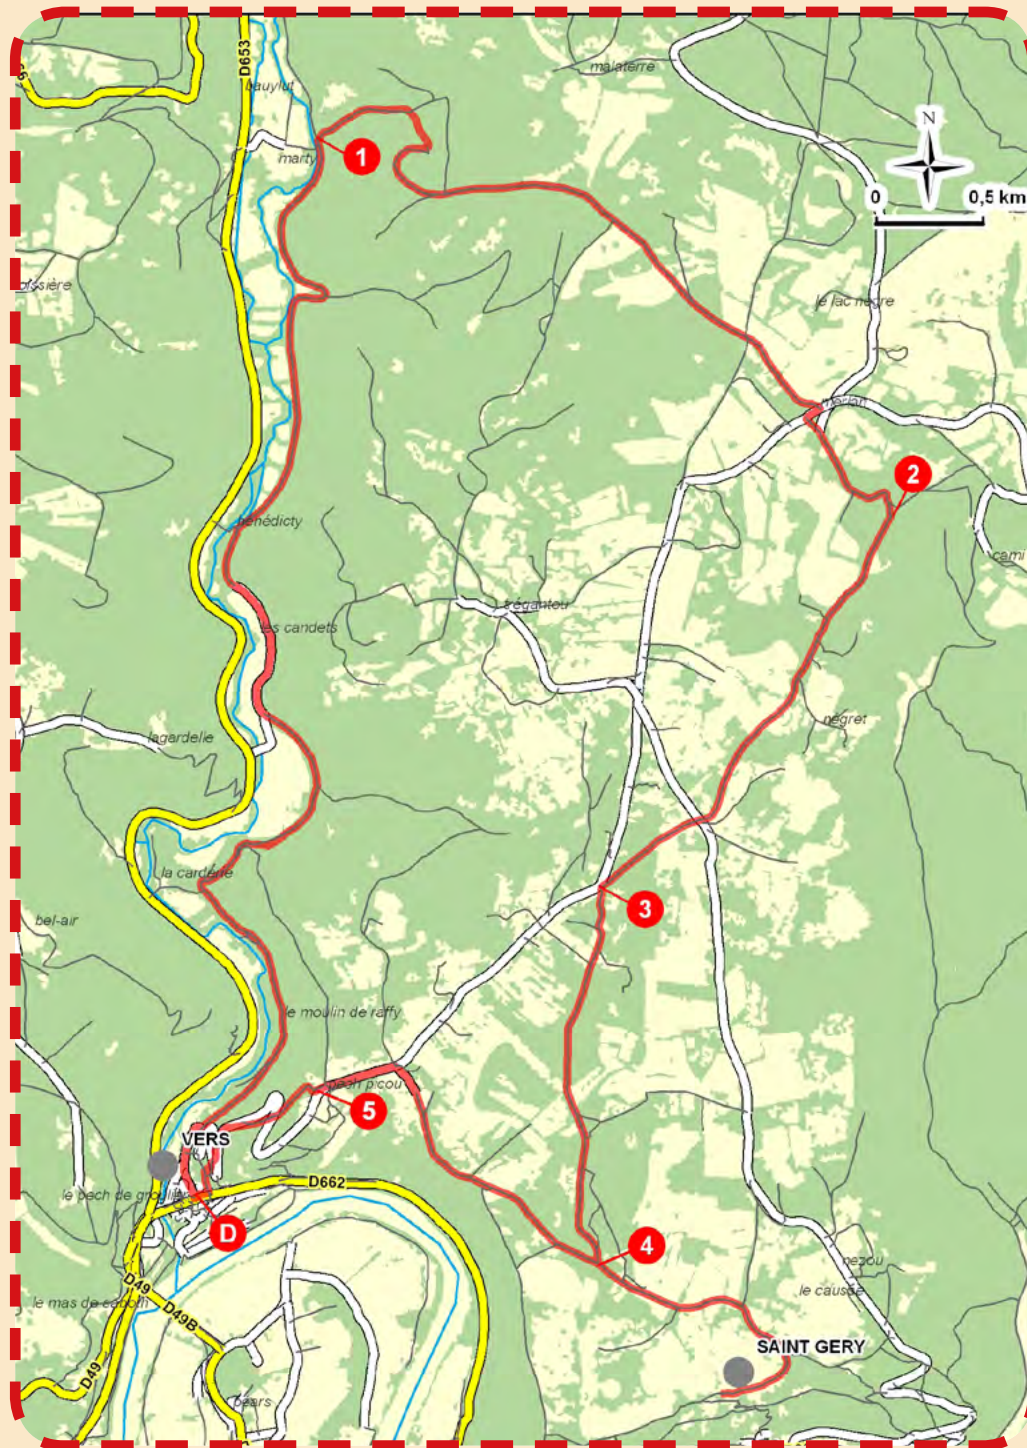

2 Leave the bridle path and go straight ahead on the path which goes down slightly then back up again to bring you to a road. Cross this and continue along the path to another road.

3 Then take the path which goes down to the left. Go through two gates (please remember to close them) and come to a wide cross-path.

4 Go left at an angle and take this path to get to the hamlet of «Le Causse». At a crossing, continue towards the right and at the next crossing, go to the right on the path which follows the edge of the cliff (views over the Lot Valley and Saint Géry). Before the path narrows, retrace your steps as far as point 4. Go straight on to the first houses of «Pech Picou». At the road junction, fork left, and come to a 5-way crossing.

5 Take the grassy path which goes down to the right and which cuts across the zig-zags of the road several times (view of the aqueduct, embedded in the cliffs opposite). Come back to the «Mas de Lucet» road and turn left to return to the church.

“ A challenging walk not to be missed because of the path along the wild and verdant Vers Valley, and the path across the Causse, rewarded by panoramic views over Saint Géry and the Lot valley. ”
